

know what news is circulated 7 They say th>> rash usurper lia.s been received at: (.irenobl.c." Then it. was. >* I have it from a. #0011 source that (Jeni'ivd Bonaparte has entered Lyons." But a few days after, attain changing his tune, he reported,  It appears certain that Napulenn is at Fontaine-bleau/" And, finally, cm the *Juth of March, he respectfully announced that "His Majesty the Kmperor and Kim: alighted tliis evening at his Palace of the Tuih'riex." /

The Legislative Body met on the ;?d of Jiiu<% aiul the d.epn-ties or Commons, among whom were many r<instituuoualixts and not a lew Jacobins, showed from the first, a .spirit of opposition and a firm determination to obtain guaranties lor their newly acquired lil>erties. Their first quarrel with the Km-peror was on tin* very first day of their sitting, and arose, out of mere points of etiquette. The good humor of the deputies was not increased when Napoleon, on bein^ waited upon for his confirmation of their election of their President, contemptuously referred the deputation to on of his eliamberhuns, who, ho said, would deliver his {the KmperorN) answer the next day through the Court pajje in waiting. This certainly showed very little; constitutional fci>linf, iitnl a majority in the house began to murmur and whisper that. Napoleon wan unchanged, and he and freedom as incompatible as tire mid water.

A. deputy named Sibuoit, in a very violent speedy made a motion against Uut use of Kuch titlcH IH l>uki% Count, Huron, etc., in the Chamber of Kc.prcscntiitiveH, and was vi>ry iii^h carrying his point, On thi siinit* tlay an<itin*r vi*ry stormy debate arose! out of the demand inmle by a iiii*iiil<r of tin Lower lloune for a list of the jjerHonages ruiseti fu fjn* new House of Peers. Caniot, in his craj>wity of Minister, tleelined giving the list until tin K<*sHion should a<*t.u;illy tw^in r<al busineBH. On his refusal the uproar was tremetsilcMiH, ami the Pn^sident's hell was for a lon# tiim¹ rniig in vain. They then proceeded to Hwntini/.c tin form an<! nubhtunre of the

1 The following(ixtriict from tli<* Mnnitftr rctiitiiliw [>wiitii]i> iY tin* pieceofnws <w<r inmTtcMI iti a jounml. **
Tkv Kiwi and l/i /'ri' < * < * < * If ft
m the myht. Ilin Mtjerty^ thr Kiw|w*rwf ciffir-nl thi* rrmlili/ ni ri*/A< <V(<>rA at his Palace of the TuUnrict."